The teaching plan includes detailed lesson plans and plans for internal assessments, seminars and remedial classes for students who require it. Different modes of delivery are adopted based on the requirement of the subject, especially in the pandemic situation, when the emphasis as well as the challenge has been remote delivery. The IQAC often assesses the teaching learning environment of different methods of effective curriculum delivery.

For the PG departments there is a Board of Studies that designs the curriculum. The committee comprises of some eminent academicians from outside the college along with some senior in-house faculties.

Regular feedback is taken about the even distribution of syllabi among all the faculty members and effective imparting of the curriculum to ensure timely completion of the assigned syllabus.

The institutional think tank believes that the wellbeing of the Teaching (T) and Non-teaching (NT) staff of an institution is the key factor towards better management of both the academic and administrative wings. Therefore, keeping the above mentioned point in mind, the institution adopted the following measures towards effective welfare of the college staffs :

- During Durga Puja, the college provides 'Festivaladvance' to Teaching and Non-Teaching staffs. Those who are willing, can avail this offer with limited formalities and the loan amount is deducted from their remuneration in easy instalments with zero interest.
- The college also hosts a cooperative society for the staffs which is affiliated to the Vidyasagar People's Cooperative, Garhbeta, West Midnapore. The primary objective of the college Co-operative is to provide financial support to the Teaching and Non-Teaching staffs of the college and facilitate the processing of loan from Vidyasagar People's Cooperative. The loan can be personal, House Building or Loan against Property. The loan is processed with minimum documentation and the staff can repay the loan amount in easy EMIs with low interests.
- The college provides lunch facility and washing charges to the Gateman and Sweeper as a recognition of their crucial service.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

Students provide us some funds in the form of fees. Fees are annual in nature except tuition fees. Fees thus collected mostly are tied to nature, i.e., they are collected to expend for a particular cause. For example, fund collected under electricity charge is used for this purpose only. However, though scope to use fund collected under academic development fee and development fee is kept little bit wide, within a specific domain. Thus to reduce our dependency on other funding agency and to facilitate our students with more conducive academic atmosphere so that they can excel, we have designed our own fund generation mechanism keeping in mind the socio-economic reality. On recommendation of IQAC authority has decided to generate a corpus fund with the help of donations from our alumni, other stake holders and well wishers.

To use the collected fund efficiently, particularly when the financial resources requirement is higher than a specific amount, it has to pass through the finance committee, Prior to that, departments of sections or relevant subcommittee discuss its necessity extensively among its members and then recommend. Once work begins relevant subcommittee looks after the work and in case of any construction an engineer consulted.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Two Best Practices:

The academic year 2020-21 has been through the unprecedented time of COVID-19 pandemic. The foremost challenge was to continue to provide the learning opportunity for our entire academic community while staying rooted in our neighborhood in the difficult time.

- Our college ensured that the learning environment is maintained as far as practically possible, through the wise and effective use of technology. We made a consistent effort in organizing online academic seminars, workshops and enrichment programs, apart from regular online classes. Various departments have come forward, in solo effort as well as in collaboration with the IQAC of our college, the Womens' Cell of our college, and/or other academic institutions.
- Our college successfully kept its responsibilities towards the neighborhood a priority in the very difficult time of the pandemic. On one hand, there were online workshops and awareness programs to enrich our faculty, staffs and students. On the other hand, there were outreach programs in the surrounding locality to raise health awareness through distribution of hygiene kits to combat the COVID-19 spread.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Institutional distinctiveness:

Our college has started to offer a unique subject combination, in order to better suit the capabilities of the students coming from the surrounding areas with distinct social-ethnic background. The combination of Santali, Physical Education and N.C.C. is slowly becoming a useful training for the students of the local communities. No other college in the vicinity offers this combination. This combination is well suited for our students coming from Santali speaking communities and it prepares them with training in physical education and for Defense and security services. We believe that more students will opt for this subject combination, and will come out better prepared for their future.
